ELECTRIC ROAD PROJECT

Redmon and Company of New York Will Take Over the Augusta-Aiken Railway Company.

(Herald Special.)
Augusta, Ga., July 28.—One of the biggest interurban traction deals ever made in the south will be consummated tomorrow when Redmon and Company of New York will take over the holdings of the E. H. Harriman estate in the stocks and bonds of the Augusta-Aiken Railway and Electric company and allied properties. The purchase price is stated to be $2,700,000. The new owners intend to immediately begin the extension of the road from Augusta westward to Atlanta and from Aiken northward to Columbia. The completion of the project will give a continuous line between the capitals of South Carolina and Georgia, a total distance of 280 miles.

SALE OF LOWRY PATENTS

History of Planters' Compress Company of Boston Will Come to an End Tomorrow.

Boston, Mass., July 28.—The history of the Planters' Compress company will come to an end tomorrow when the company concludes the sale of its letter patent covering the Lowry invention and patents for compressing cotton, hay, etc., into cylindrical bales. During the past five years the company has disposed of nearly all its tangible assets, amounting to over $10,000,000. The sale of patents tomorrow will include letters patent for the Lowry round bale method of making the bale, the press and mechanical appliances and, in fact, all the patents for making the cylindrical bale individual to the Planters' Compress company.

DALLAS GUN CLUB SHOOT

Experts Marksmen From Texas and Other States Are Competing at Dallas This Week.

(Herald Special.)
Dallas, Texas, July 28.—Many expert marksmen of Texas and other states faced the traps on Junius Heights today at the opening of a three days' tournament under the auspices of the Dallas Gun Club. Today was devoted to practice and sweepstake shooting. The feature of the tournament will be the Southland handicap, fifty targets at from sixteen yards to twenty yards, which will be contested on the concluding day.

TAYLOR SCHOOL HOUSE.

Taylor School House, July 26.—After an absence of several weeks I will come again to give you the happenings of our neighborhood. Everybody seems to be enjoying perfect health, with the exception of Mrs. Henderson, who has been on the sick list for some time.

Sunday seemed to be visiting day for everybody. Mrs. Pickle visited her mother, Mrs. Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Miller visited in New Chicago; Messrs. Frank and Fred Schwitter, Gene VanFleck and Horace Shaver visited the home of Mr. Schwitter; Mr. Rab Lewis and family visited friends in Palestine Sunday; Mr. W. Campbell and mother of Palestine visited in our midst Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Burks of Nacogdoches is spending a few weeks at the home of J. F. Nash.

Miss Novella Jackson is visiting her brother in Houston.
Mr. and Mrs. Rownie and granddaughter, Miss Annie Simpson, of Corsicana, are spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Rownie's daughter, Mrs. A. L. Wright.

Mrs. Florence Pane is spending a few weeks with her father and mother.

er, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Taylor.
Messrs. Fred and Joe Schwitter and Gene VanFleck attended Sunday school at Collier School House Sunday.

The protracted meeting began at Tucker last week. Hope they will have a good meeting.

The young people attended an ice cream supper at Mr. Collier's Friday night. Every one reports a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas gave a singing social at their home Sunday night, which was enjoyed very much.

The farmers are busy laying by their crops. Guess they will be glad when they are through, as the weather is so warm.

What has become of all the writers that used to write to the Herald? Hope you have not forgotten the Herald. Was glad to see a letter from Tucker from one of the old correspondents. Come again.

Wishing the Herald success, I am, as ever,
